

RIGHT TO INFORMATION

The Right to Information Act empowers the citizens to promote transparency and accountability in the working of the Government. A citizen has a right to seek such information from a public authority which is held by the public authority or which is held under its control. Only such information can be supplied under the Act which already exists and is held by the public authority or held under the control of the public authority. The Right to Information Act, 2005 has been enacted by the Parliament and has come into force from 15 June, 2005. This Act provides for right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority. All Universities and Colleges established by law made by Parliament or by State Legislature or by notification by the appropriate Government or owned, controlled or substantially financed directly or indirectly by funds provided by the Government shall come within the meaning of a Public Authority under this Act. Full text of the act is available on the website www.righttoinformation.gov.in.
