Certificate Course
Sensory Writing 2023-24
Report

The Department of English started offering a Certificate Course in Creative Writing, titled “Sensory Writing” to Final year M.A (English Language and Literature) students in the academic year 2023-24. The number of participants in the course included 21. The course instructors included Gayatry S. (Asst. Professor in English) and Dr. Sumithra Devi S. (Asst. Professor in English).

The main objective of the course was to help the students gain a fundamental grasp of the wide range of possibilities of creative writing, and to equip them with the skills that would enable them to engage their imaginative and analytical faculties. The reading materials were chosen with the intention of instilling in the students, a willingness to read, write, and experiment with language and story. The content was designed in such a way that it helped to improve their writing skills and their ability to respond meaningfully to the creative works of others. . The course also attempted to help them discover new directions in their own writing. It was conducted through a combination of online lectures as well as through written assignments, which the students submitted online.

The students were familiarized with sensory writing and were introduced to various genres- poetry, fiction, plays, and creative non-fiction by means of creative exercises and assignments. Alongside analytical skills, they were also trained to use critical skills appropriately. The course focused on expressive writing in many different forms. Originality and writing that showed thought was emphasized. Strategies to avoid writer's block and new ways to uncover ideas for writing were also explored.

The students were evaluated through short spontaneous exercises and longer assignments and on the basis of their responses to the tasks that involved several different types of poetry and prose styles, quotes, pictures and music, after which a written exam was also conducted.

The course had a duration of 30 hours. A written examination was conducted after the completion of the course. Grades were awarded on the following basis:

80% and above- A Grade

70 - 79% - B Grade

60 -69% - C Grade

The course had the desired outcome and all the 21 participants secured A-Grade in the course.
