

Objective

Both institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

- Collaboration in teaching and research in the field of mutual interest,
- The exchange of academic materials and publications,
- Conducting lectures,
- Undertaking research,
- Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions,
- Conducting study tours

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting forth detailed arrangements for collaboration will be agreed. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment or such exchange, will be worked out between the institutes in areas with prior mutual consent of both the parties. This is without any financial obligation for both the parties.

Extension Activities

Department of Zoology will help CMFRI to disseminate the technologies developed by ICAR -CMFRI such as cage farming, ornamental fish culture, bivalve farming and seaweed culture to farmers and students of TKMCAS which would benefit of students especially weaker sections of the community.

Coordination

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching/research faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of TKMCAS, and a programme coordinator from the side of CMFRI, will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

Validity

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of five years commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review. Either institute may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of three (3) months in advance to the other institute. Once terminated, neither TKMCAS nor CMFRI will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institute may suffer. However, TKMCAS and CMFRI will ensure that the provisions of this memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes. Participating faculties, staff and students involved in any activities under this Memorandum must adhere to the law of the host countries and rules and regulations of the institutions. Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any legal relationship between the institutes. This Memorandum is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration.

TKMCAS and CMFRI welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above. In witness whereof the above-named parties have set their hands, on the day, month and year first above written in presence of the following witnesses.
