MBIFL 'ka FEST' 2024

With an aim towards fostering students' love for art and literature, Performing Arts Club in coordination with Literary Club of the college coordinated all literature enthusiasts to MBIFL '24 Fest held in Kanakakunnu Palace, Thiruvananthapuram on 10 February 2024. It proved to be a huge experience for all the participants. It set the literary scene by unleashing the creative spirit of every soul that made it to the fest. A total of 55 students from almost all departments of the college started by bus.

University Kalolsavam - University of Kerala 2024

The Kerala University Kalalosavam, conducted on March 07- 11 at Thiruvananthapuram Senate Campus, Palayam was a vibrant and culturally enriching event that celebrated the diverse talents of students from various colleges across the state. This annual extravaganza of arts and culture spanned several days and showcased the artistic prowess of young talents in a multitude of categories, including music, dance, drama, and literary arts. The Kalalosavam commenced with a grand inauguration ceremony that featured renowned personalities from the cultural sphere. It was an auspicious start to the event, setting the tone for the days to come. The heart of Kalalosavam was the numerous competitive events in which students participated enthusiastically. These events were categorized into various streams: Solo and group singing competitions in classical, semi-classical, and contemporary genres, Various dance forms, including classical, folk, and contemporary, were presented with grace and energy, The theatrical talents of the participants showed through in thought-- provoking plays and skits, Eloquent oratory, poetry recitation, and essay writing contests encouraged students to showcase their literary skills. The artistic talents of students were displayed through competitions in painting and other visual arts. Apart from the competitions, the Kalalosavam featured a cultural extravaganza that included traditional music and dance performances, providing a platform for students to showcase their cultural heritage. The competitive spirit among the participants was palpable, making each event a thrilling experience for both performers and the audience. The high level of talent displayed in classical dance and music events was particularly noteworthy, showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Kerala. The literary arts competitions saw participants delivering eloquent speeches on various contemporary issues, reflecting their social awareness. The Kerala University Kalalosavam was a grand success, bringing together students from various backgrounds to celebrate the vibrant cultural tapestry of Kerala. It promoted artistic talents and fostered a sense of unity and cultural exchange among participants. The event served as a reminder of the importance of preserving and promoting the rich cultural traditions of the state. In conclusion, the Kalalosavam was a testament to the creativity, passion, and dedication of the students who participated. It left an indelible mark on the hearts of all who attended, and we look forward to the next edition of this cultural extravaganza. There were 8 group items and numerous individual items from the college that participated in the University Youth Festival. Our Oppana Team scored 3rd place in the Kalolsavam. Our student ' Hashim Shihab ' also won first place for Mappila Paattu- an individual item.
