DIVYANGJAN POLICY STATEMENT

T.K.M. College of Arts and Science, founded by the great industrialist and philanthropist, Janab Thangal Kunju Musaliar, aims to provide education on par with global standards to all the sections of society, irrespective of caste, creed, religion, and sex. The primary objective of the institution is to uplift the socially and economically deprived sections of the society, and to empower the differently abled students to get equal opportunity in academic and non academic activities. The institution has strongly asserted its commitment towards inclusive education in concurrence with the Sustainable Development Goals. To ensure the rights of Divyangjan, the college has formulated various policies in guidance with the directions provided by the State and the Central government.

Objectives

- 1) To provide educational equity and equality in the institution.
- 2) To ensure inclusive education and accessibility.
- 3) To bring 'Divyangjan' to the mainstream.
- 4) To provide the best facilities for the differently abled students.
- 5) To implement legislations protecting the rights of the divyangjan.

Divyangjan Policy of the College

- Flexible examination policy for the divyangjan to accommodate the specific needs on case-to case basis.

- Strict adherence to 'inclusive education' policy, wherein, the students with disability, and otherwise, learn together in a system where the teaching learning transaction meet the needs of the divyangjan.
- Respect for inherent dignity, individual autonomy, and freedom of choice for all the students in the campus.
- Non- discrimination in all sense, and inclusion of divyangjan in all the academic and non- academic activities of the college.
- Stringent measures to punish those who disrespect divyangjan, or violate the provisions provided to them.
- No Discrimination Policy in admission, facilities, distribution and opportunities in the college.
- Easy divyangjan accessibility to the infrastructure, and facilities of the college.
- Better and reasonable accommodation according to the requirements of the differently abled students.
- Individualized support to maximize academic, social, and skill development of divyangjan.
- Monitoring participation, completion, progression, and placement of the divyangjan.
- Provide transportation facilities to divyangjan and their attendants.

Provisions Provided for the Divyangjan

- 1) In accordance with the policy of the state government on divyangjan, the college provides fee exemption for differently abled students.
- 2) Provide scholarships and financial assistance for divyangjan.
- 3) Assistance provided to buy gadgets, accessories, and software for educational needs.
- 4) Assistance with regard to progression to higher studies and placement opportunities.
- 5) Facilitates career counselling and self motivational training programmes.
