

Report of Events organised from December, 2024 to November, 2025

Department of Languages (Arabic, Malayalam and Hindi)

Sl. No.	Name of the event	Date	About the programme	Photos
1	International Arabic Day: Calligraphy Competition	17.12.2024	A calligraphy competition for students was organized by the Department of Language and Islamic History. The program was conducted as part of the International Arabic Day celebrations. Students from all departments participated in the event. Nafila C.P., an S1 Islamic History student, was the winner. T.K.M. Trust Chairman, Dr. T.K. Shahal Hassan Musaliyar, distributed the prizes.

2.	International Arabic Day: National Seminar	18.12.2024	The theme of the programme was 'The Importance of Language in Shaping Society and Culture'. It was organised by the Department of Languages in association with the Department of Islamic History. Fourteen research papers were presented and eight selected papers were successfully accepted after peer review, of which two have already been published through TIMJR. The video link of the interview with the chief guest is available at: Media cell.
3	Commemorative Speech on Sri. M.T. Vasudevan by Dr. M.S. Biju, Assistant Professor, S.N. College, Cherthala.	1-1-2025.	Organized by the Department of Malayalam in association with the College Library and the Students' Union. A poster exhibition, book discussion and film show were also included as part of the programme. The College Principal, Professor. Dr. M.J. Sheeba, inaugurated the function. Students and teachers participated through the programme. The video link of the interview with the chief guest is available at: Media cell.

4.	Commemorative Speech on Sri. ONV Kuruppu by Sri. Shanavas A, President, Adhyapaka Kala Sahiti , Kerala.	13.02.2025	Organised by the Department of Malayalam in association with the College Library. Apart from the invited talk, a music event based on the lyrics of Sri. ONV Kuruppu was conducted. Sri. Kureepuzha Francis led the music team, and artists from the College Music Team also took part in the programme. The Principal, Prof. Dr. M.J. Sheeba, inaugurated the function. All students and teachers participated and it was grand success.
5	International Women's Day	10-3-2025	Organised by the Mitra Women Cell and the Department of Languages in association with the Department of Islamic History. After an engaging talk by Sri. Adheesh U on the literary history of women in literature, a fruitful discussion followed. Prof. Dr. M.J. Sheeba, Principal, inaugurated the function.

6	Invited talk on 'Mental Neuroplastic Wellness' by Dr. Fresnal Das	24-3-2025	Organised by the Mitra Women's Cell in association with the Departments of Languages and Islamic History. An interactive session on Neuroplastic Wellness and Mental Health and Hygiene was led by Dr. Fresnal Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Fathima Mata National College, Kollam. Students from the UG departments and teachers also participated in the session.
7	Malayala Bhasha Varakhosham	3-11-2025	Organized by the Department of Languages: An invited talk on Malayalam and Malayali was delivered by Dr. R.S. Rajeev, writer and retired professor, DB College, Sastamcotta. His talk on the importance of Keralapiravi was very interesting. Prof. Dr. M.J. Sheeba honoured the winner of the college's 'Malayalamanka' competition on the same day.

